ILO-De La Salle University (DLSU) knowledge corner partnership

On 31 January 2011, Mr Lawrence Jeff Johnson, CO-Manila Director, Br. Ricardo Laguda FSC, DLSU Chancellor, and Ms Ana Maria Fresnido, University Library Director formally signed the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) on the ILO-DLSU knowledge corner partnership.

Following the establishment of a partnership with the UPSOLAIR in 2009, the De La Salle University (DLSU) have approached the ILO to set-up similar ILO Knowledge Corner to make ILO publications, reports, statistics, and other work-related information materials available in their own institution.

The ILO-DLSU Knowledge Corner partnership was formally launched after signing the MOA. The Knowledge Corner will be designated in the main libraries of DLSU and the Makati Extension campus.

With this initiative, labour information networking will systematize, regularize, and institutionalize information exchange and sharing. Director Lawrence Jeff Johnson stress that access to proper information, the youth and policy-makers.

ILO to Occupy corners at DLSU Library

by: Joseph Yap, MEC Librarian

The De La Salle University Library and the International Labour Organization (ILO) country office in Manila will soon embark on a new partnership— to put up DLSU–ILO Knowledge Corners.

The signing of the Memorandum of Agreement is tentatively scheduled in January 2011 at DLSU. ILO has granted two knowledge corners for DLSU. The first is to be located at the Information Reference Service (2nd level) of the University Library and the second corner will be installed at the Makati Extension Campus (MEC) Library (5th level) of RCBC Plaza, Makati.

The objective of the collaboration is to effectively disseminate labor information published by the ILO through information exchange and knowledge sharing.

This partnership includes various activities and services like ILO orientation and knowledge-sharing sessions and participation in different events and activities, including conferences, book fairs, special exhibitions, and video screenings as agreed by both parties.

As a start, two boxes of materials were sent by ILO to DLSU Library on December 14, 2010. The Library will immediately process these materials and make them available in time for MOA signing.

Other ILO Knowledge Corners can be found at the University of the Philippines – School of Labor and Industrial Relations (SOLAIR) and at the Asian Institute of Management (AIM).

They discussed the MIL modules based from UNESCO’s initiative, young people as consumers of media, how to interpret media, integration of media culture and technology, and cooperation and sharing of ideas.

The DLSU Libraries launches the first human library in the country

August 22, 2014

The very first Human Library in the Philippines was organized by the De La Salle University Libraries and was launched on August 14, 2014.

In the opening remarks delivered by Ms. Ana Maria B. Fresnido, the Director of the Libraries, she said that the Human Library started in 2000 in Denmark, founded by Mr. Ronni Abergel and his group; and that it is composed of human or living books who have special talents or life experiences to share, thus serving as primary sources of information and providing opportunities for real and authentic discussions. She further stated that Human Libraries actually aim to challenge stereotype, stigma, prejudice and discrimination.

Ten volunteers representing different types of prejudices served as living books and were tagged as: (1) The Unbearable Lightness of Being Me by Maria Vanessa Medina (lightweight); (2) Pride vs. Prejudice: Making the World More LGBT-Friendly by Eric Julian Manalastas (Gay); (3) Proud Tibo, Proud Nanay by Ma. Luisa Toribio (Lesbian); (4) The Tattoo Artist by Alfred K. Guevara (Tattooed);
